The MARY[illegible]AZETTE.

[XXth Year.] Dec. 20. 1765 [illegible] [No. 1024.]

CORK, October 8.

Extract of a Letter from William Alexander, private, in Lord Drogheda's Light Horse, part of whom were concerned in an Action with the Levellers or White Boys, in the County of Kilkenny, dated Clonmell, October 1, 1764.

SERJEANT Johnston, a Corporal, and 12 private Men of our Regiment, on an Eſcort of 9 Levellers from Carrick to Kilkenny Goal, were laſt Saturday attacked by a great Number of White Boys, armed with Guns, Swords, Bill-Hooks, Hatchets, &c. at a Place called Sheep's-Town, about 6 Miles from Carrick. Our Men behaved with undaunted Reſolution, and made great Havock while their Ammunition laſted; but that being expended, and the Enemy increaſing, they thought it Time to ſecure a Retreat from amidſt the Croud, leaving the Serjeant and one Dragoon behind, who were moſt inhumanly butchered; three more of our Men are deſperately wounded, and their Lives deſpaired of. Twenty-nine Men, and two Women, of the Levellers, were killed, beſides wounded. When the firſt Intelligence of this Affair was received here, the Remainder of two Troops marched to the Aſſiſtance of our brave Companions, but arrived too late, and all we could ſee at that Place was dead Bodies, Legs and Arms; in ſearching the Country we found ſeveral wounded Men and Women, whom we ſent to Goal, and I hear ſome of them are this Day dead of their Wounds. On our Traverſe we diſcovered two Men, who fled at our Appearance, and not chuſing to ſubmit, were killed in the Purſuit. That Part of the Country ſeems in ſhort to be almoſt depopulated, and as for the Effect this rebellious Spirit may have in other Parts, Time alone can ſhew."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in the County of Tipperary to his Friend in this City, dated near Clonmell, October 3.

"Perhaps the hearing of our Riots may not be diſagreeable to you, although at the Coſt of Twopence, for it is almoſt open War in the County of Kilkenny. Laſt Week Three Fellows that had been taken and confined in Carrick, turned King's Evidence; in Conſequence thereof, an Officer, with a Party of Light Horſe, took nine Fellows, which they were ſending under a Serjeant and Twelve Men to Kilkenny Goal: They had got as far as a Place called Sheep's-Town, when there met them above 400 People in a narrow Road, attending a Coffin filled with Scythes, Bill-Hooks, and the Inſtruments they cut Turf with; about half the Croud paſſed the Party and Priſoners, when they threw down the Coffin, took out the Weapons, and ruſhed in upon the Dragoons, who were on Foot, and who behaved as well and as brave as any Men could do; they knocked down the Serjeant, whoſe Name was Johnſton, and got his Carbine out of his Hand, which they fired directly at him; he however got another, and had the Satisfaction, it is ſaid, to kill the Perſon who gave him his mortal Wound, with another of them, and died about 100 Yards from the Field of Battle; there was alſo one Finch, a brave Fellow, who was cut almoſt to Pieces, and ſince dead; and every other Man of the Party deſperately wounded, but believe will all recover. Four of the Men, who it was thought were running away, turned ſhort (as ſoon as they diſengaged themſelves from the Croud) and got behind a blind Ditch, within a few Paces of the Mob, and fired away all their Ammunition, 16 Rounds a Man (in Platoons) before they were knocked down, which from all Accounts did great Execution; ſome Reports ſay 24 were killed outright, and others only 17, and a great number wounded; Three of which were taken deſperately wounded the Night before laſt: And it is alſo reported a great many others are taken, as there are ſeveral other Parties in Queſt of them. An Officer Yeſterday told me, he was informed a Party was ſent down to Waterford, in Queſt of about Ten who were wounded, and went there to be cured. Lord Carrick, and ſeveral Gentlemen, are exerting themſelves a good deal in that Country; and indeed, it is to be hoped, every Well-Wiſher to our Conſtitution will do the like. A great Number aſſembled the latter End of laſt Week about Ardfinan, went to the Rev. Mr. [illegible] coming about Six, the 5 [illegible] and returned the next Evening about the ſame Hour with 6 Men and 2 Women; all which were wounded, and brought to Town on Cars or Truckles.——Two of the above Men have ſince died of their Wounds in Goal. Four more of thoſe Fellows have been found dead in the Deer Park, belonging to Lord Mount Morris, near Kilkenny, of the Wounds they received; and it is certain a great many have died in that Way.—— Since the above, upwards of 500 of the White Boys appeared at Night about Callen, and have been ſo daring laſt Monday and Tueſday Nights, as to go within half a Mile of the Demeſne of the Right Hon. the Lord Deſart.——The Gentlemen in that Neighbourhood, are obliged to have their Horſes in Stable before Night, leſt they ſhould be taken away and harraſſed by theſe Rebels. Several Nights laſt Week, at leaſt 600 of the White Boys appeared in and about the Town of Thurles, in the County of Tipperary, dreſſed in their uſual Uniform; and without ſome Steps are ſpeedily taken, to prevent theſe Commotions, it is feared theſe Rebels will riſe in other Counties.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon to a Merchant in this City, dated Sept. 24.

"Count Lippe ſailed hence three Days ago, in the Expedition Packet, for Falmouth. The King made him a Preſent of the following Particulars:

Three very handſome Rings, a Stock Buckle, a Pair of Shoe Buckles, and Knee Buckles, all Diamonds.

A black Eagle (of which Order the Count is) ſet round with Diamonds.

Six Pieces of Gold Cannon of eighteen Inches long, the Circumference of the Breech of each is ten Inches, and each weighs 28 lb they are mounted on Carriages, curiouſly wrought of Pau Santa [or Ebony] the Hooks and Bolts of which are Silver.

"It is poſitively ſaid, that the Evening before the Count ſailed, his Majeſty ſent on board the Packet, a Box directed to him, alſo a Letter deſiring he would not open the Box until he arrived in London, and that ſaid Box contained Eighty Thouſand Pounds Sterling in Money; if this latter be true, as it is generally believed to be, he has no Reaſon to repent his coming to Portugal.

"He has work'd like a Slave in modelling the Army anew, where are now 26,000 Troops as well diſciplined as any in Europe."

LONDON.

Sept. 19. Letters from Elſineur of the 4th Inſt. bring Advice, that they had a certain Account, that a moſt dreadful Fire had happened in the Ship-Yard at Revel, which had reduced the Ruſſian Shipping there to Aſhes, and that, by the ſaid terrible Calamity, ſome Thouſands of Men loſt their Lives.

October 2. A Letter from Paris ſays, "The Cod-Fiſhery on the Newfoundland Bank has been this Year equally plentiful and advantageous to the Perſons concerned in it. The People of St. Malo in particular have made Cent per Cent of it; which no doubt will encourage our Merchants to fit out next Year a greater Number of Veſſels for this Trade."

By the laſt French Mail there is Advice, that the Number of their Veſſels employed in the Newfoundland Fiſhery, amounts to upwards of 500 Sail, from 50 to 300 Tons, as appears from the following Liſt; 50 from St. Maloes, 70 from Granville, 64 from St. Martin's, 49 from the Iſle of Rhee, 110 from Bayonne, 70 from St. Jean de Luz, 38 from Sibour, 90 from Rochfort, and a large Number of ſmall Craft from the different Ports of inferior Note along the Coaſt; and their Cargoes have ſold from Thirty to Thirty-ſix Livres the Quintal.

The Whale Fiſhery at Bermuda has this Summer turned out extremely advantageous.

Letters from Cadiz, by Friday's Mail, mention the ſailing of the Glorious and Subtile Men of War, with 1000 Troops on board, for Carthagena in New Spain.

The Merchants are afraid of a Rupture with the Algerines; our Court not being ſatisfied, by any Means with the Divan's Condemnation of the Genoeſe Polacre taken under an Engliſh Paſs, and the Dey ſeeming abſolutely determined not to give up the Point, in allowing us the Liberty of granting Paſſes to the Veſſels of other Nations.

On Sunday laſt died on a Viſit at the Rev. Mr. Spence's at Durham, Mr. Robert Dodſley, Author of Cleone, the Toyſhop, the King and the Miller of Mansfield, and ſeveral other Pieces of a moral Tendency, and late an eminent Bookſeller in Pall-Mall.

Wedneſday died, at her Houſe at Greenwich, Mrs. Wolfe, Relict of Colonel Edward Wolfe, and Mother to the late heroic General of the ſame Name.

Thurſday Morning died at Bath, of the Gout in his Stomach, John Lord Trevor, Baron of Bromham, and F. R. S. His Lordſhip leaving no Iſſue Male, his Title and Eſtate deſcends to his Brother, the Hon. Robert Hampden, Eſq; Poſt-Maſter-General, now Lord Trevor, married (May 31, 1731) Elizabeth, Daughter to the late celebrated Writer Sir Richard Steele; by whom he had an only Daughter, named Diana.

It is expected that the 44th Regiment of Foot, which has been for many Years paſt, and now is on Duty in North-America, will very ſoon receive Orders to embark for Europe.

The unfortunate Prince John, who was lately aſſaſſinated in the Fortreſs of Schluſſenburg, was Great Grandſon, by the Mother's Side, of the Czar John, elder Brother of Peter the Great. The Czarina Anne dying on the 28th of October, 1740, appointed this young Prince for her Succeſſor; and during his Minority, being ſcarce ſix Months old at his Acceſſion, Count Biren, Duke of Courland, was nominated Regent; which the Princeſs Anne, the young Emperor's Mother, thinking ſhe was better intitled to, if not to the Throne itſelf, ordered Count Munich to apprehend the Duke of Courland, cauſed him to be tried for High Treaſon, and condemned to die, but was content with baniſhing him to Siberia. After which ſhe aſſumed the Regency, but did not enjoy it long; for the Ruſſian Guards and Generals of the Army, conſpiring with the Princeſs Elizabeth, youngeſt Daughter of Peter the Great, proclaimed her Empreſs the 5th of December, 1741, and made the Infant Emperor, with his Father and Mother, Priſoners. The Mother was ſaid to die of Grief ſoon after her Confinement.

October 9. Some foreign Advices mention, that the Dey of Algiers has cauſed it to be notified to the ſeveral Powers with whom the Regency is at Peace, that in Lieu of the Preſents occaſionally made him, or on the Renewal of Treaties, he expects a Ship of War compleatly furniſhed, of a certain Force, and ſtored with Ammunition, to be navigated into the Port of Algiers.

Extract of a Letter from Algiers, Sept. 12.

"Near 800 Slaves are conſtantly employed here in making a Back Water, ſufficient to contain the whole Algerine Navy ſecure from the Effects of a Bombardment, and ſtrongly flanked with 9 Batteries of heavy Cannon. Perhaps you may wonder how this petty State is able to maintain almoſt conſtant Hoſtilities with ſeveral of the naval Powers of Europe; but to [illegible] continue to be ſupplied with Ammunition and Warlike Stores from the other half, with whom they are at Peace, it is no Surprize they ſhould ridicule the Report, that Spain, in Conjunction with the States of Italy, are arming on an Expedition againſt them. Europe has ſeen a much more formidable Power than Spain can pretend to, ſome Years ago, and even at this Juncture, triſled with, after a long Diſpute about an illegal Capture by the Algerine Dey."

By the French Mail there is Advice, that the repeated Captures of ſo many valuable Merchant Ships, by the Barbary Rovers, have, at length, determined the Miniſtry to proceed againſt them with the utmoſt Rigour; and all the Ships now appointed on this Expedition are furniſhed with Oars, and are of the moſt ſwift ſailing Conſtruction that can be picked out.

On Thurſday laſt, as a Gentleman of Family and Fortune, who has a Seat in Berkſhire, was coming to Town with his Family, one of his Carriages broke down within 14 Miles of London which laid him under the Neceſſity of hiring Poſt Chaiſes for the Remainder of his Journey. The Gentleman's Daughter, who is 23 Years of Age and reckoned a great Beauty, ſeemed particularly affected with a very ſmart Fellow of an Hoſtler, who diſtinguiſhed himſelf by his Activity, in getting the Horſes put to the Chaiſes, &c. In Reward for his Dexterity, the young Lady enquired his Name, made him a handſome Preſent at that Time, ſent for him on Friday following, and married him with a ſpecial Licence on Sunday. It is ſaid ſhe has 20,000 Pounds independent of her Friends. [A delightful MISS FORTUNE for the active Hoſtler.]

NEW-YORK, December 6.

We have Advice, that the Algerines have taken many Veſſels under Engliſh Colours, and with Engliſh Paſſes, belonging to other Nations; and that the Perſons who have granted thoſe Paſſes will be called to Account for it in England. ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

December 4th, 1764.

WHEREAS on or about the 14th Day of September laſt, the Schooner Succeſs, Daniel Tyler then Maſter, ſailed from Liverpool in Nova-Scotia, bound for Annapolis in Maryland, with part of a Cargo of Mackrell and dry'd Cod Fiſh; and on the 21ſt of the ſaid Month, September, it appears that the ſaid Schooner Succeſs arrived at Newport, in the Colony of Rhode-Iſland; where a certain John Eales, a Mariner on board, and One-half Owner of the ſaid Schooner Succeſs, contrived Means to get Poſſeſſion of the Regiſter, and Cuſtom-Houſe Papers of the ſaid Veſſel; and then, as it is ſuppoſed, diſcharged the ſaid Daniel Tyler from the further Command of her; and ſhipped a certain Jonathan Nichols, of Newport aforeſaid, as Navigator: And on or about the 28th Day of September aforeſaid, the ſaid Schooner Succeſs (the ſaid John Eales being termed Maſter) ſailed from Newport, and as he alledged, bound for the Iſland of Nantucket, to get a Freight of Oil for Salem on Delaware; but it does not appear that the ſaid Schooner Succeſs has been at either of the two laſt mentioned Ports, nor has ſhe ever arrived at Annapolis in Maryland, to which Place the ſaid John Eales was under an Engagement to comply with the Terms of a Bottomry Bill, entered into by the ſaid Eales, with Edmund Rutland of Annapolis, Owner of the other half of the ſaid Schooner, nor has any Information been received of the ſaid Schooner Succeſs, ſince her ſailing from Newport as aforeſaid.

Wherefore, from theſe and other Circumſtances, there is Reaſon to apprehend, that the ſaid John Eales, fraudulently intends to carry off the ſaid Schooner, to evade the Diſcharge of the Bottomry Bill, and to defraud the ſaid Edmund Rutland of his Right and Property in and unto the other Half of the ſaid Schooner, and to convert the Same and the Cargo to his own Uſe.

All Cuſtom-Houſe Officers in any of his Majeſty's Dominions, and all other Perſons whatſoever, are requeſted and deſired to uſe all lawful Means to apprehend and detect the ſaid John Eales in his fraudulent Deſigns, if in their Power; and appear for me the Subſcriber Edmund Rutland, ſo that my Intereſt and Property in the ſaid Schooner, and her Cargo, may be ſecured to me: And any Perſon ſo apprehending the ſaid John Eales, and the above Schooner, ſo that he may be brought to Juſtice, ſhall be entitled to the above mentioned Reward, and they are deſired to ſend Intelligence to Reeſe Meredith, Merchant in Philadelphia, or to me Edmund Rutland, in Annapolis in Maryland.

Those Watches which have been many Years in Use, and consequently Wore, he will engage to Mend, as well as when New; and will at a very moderate Expence keep, those he Repairs, in Order, for Ten Years, all Damages excepted which may accrue to 'em from Accidents, such as a Fall, and the Breaking of a Main Spring, which the most discerning Workman cannot often Account for, nor [illegible] prevent.

He makes, and will Supply any Gentlemen with HORIZONTAL, SECONDS, or PLAIN WATCHES, and will engage the Quality to be equal to any Imported from LONDON.
